'Imagine a Sower going out to sow'

Message from Bishop-Elect Fr Stephen Wang

I'm so happy to be appointed as your new bishop, and I am really looking forward to meeting you and getting to know the Diocese – the priests and deacons, those in consecrated life, all the lay faithful, and so many others. I'm really looking forward to visiting our parishes, schools, and all the other communities that make up our Diocese.

Opening Prayer

O God, who show the light of your truth to those who go astray, so that they may return to the right path, give all who for the faith they profess are accounted Christians the grace to reject whatever is contrary to the name of Christ and to strive after all that does it honour. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

Brief Reflection

In Jesus' world, there were no farms with fences, no machines, no carefully designed fields. The farmer did not plough the field, and then carefully sow the seed into the ploughed land. The seed of God's Word is scattered and then ploughed in. Then comes the growth, the fruitfulness. The disciples, just like us, are being shown that understanding this parable, and all the parables, is a privilege, and we being led to share and build God's Kingdom: the secrets of the Kingdom are ours. How much are we letting our understanding, our gift of faith, help us share the ways of Jesus Christ?

CAFOD Venezuela Earthquake Appeal

£110 was raised. Thank you.

Pimm's & Hymns

Our Pimm's and Hymns evening last Friday was a wonderful, relaxed and joyful occasion, bringing our parish community together in friendship and fellowship. It was a thoroughly enjoyable evening filled with good company, conversation and singing. Our parish fundraising and social committee would like to thank everyone who came along and helped make it a success, with special thanks to Nicola, Phil and Simon, our musicians. We also welcomed parishioners from Chertsey and West Byfleet. Although primarily a social event, we were delighted to raise £225 towards the hall roof. We look forward to making it an annual event and hope to see even more of you next year!
